All competition rules and regulations, fishing areas and details will be discussed and catch forms made available.

Fishing times:

Saturday 27th: 6am to 5pm (all catch sheets to be handed in by 5.30pm)

Sunday 28th: 6am to 11am (all catch sheets to be handed in by 11.30am)

Safety: Worthiness of craft being used in this event is the responsibility of the competing angler and safety is of prime importance. Contestants fishing the Inter Club do so at their own volition and risk. All craft must comply with Waterways safety rules.

Hawkesbury Nepean Bass Anglers Association will not accept any responsibility for accident, injury or loss occasioned during this event.

Meals and Alcohol: HNBA will be providing a sausage sizzle on Friday night prior to the briefing and Sunday lunch time prior to the presentation. The catered meal on Saturday night will be provided by HNBA. The catered evening meal will consist of a main course followed by desert and coffee. This will commence at pm. Please organize your own food for breakfast on Saturday and Sunday and lunch on Saturday. No alcohol is provided. BYO

Fishing: All fish must be measured on a Fisheries tape measure. Measures will be made available at the briefing. All anglers must hold a current NSW recreational fishing license. All bass measured to fork length. All catches must be verified by another team so live wells are mandatory and no dead fish will count.

Access must be via the camping site and no boats are to leave prior to 6am

Competition Rules:

1. Fishing will be by lure and or fly only (no bait or burley)
 2. All hooks are to be barb less.
 3. All competitors must fish in teams of two anglers only. If 3 in a boat one angler to swing. Nomination must be made prior to fishing.
 4. All fish recorded must be measured by another opposing team and catch forms named and signed. (to count in your top five fish)
 5. In the event of a draw, a count back on next best fish will take place.
 6. The event is run on a "Catch and Release" basis. Please capture, have your fish measured, photograph (if you wish) and release all fish (except carp) as soon as possible.
- The committee's decision on all matters pertaining to the competition is final. Any or all rules may be subject to changes, without prior notice, but this will be explained in the Friday night briefing.
